
Roundtable Discussion

Democracy in Argentina: Thirty Years After the Transition

Tuesday, December 10, 2013

4:00 pm London / 11:00 am Notre Dame / 1:00 pm Buenos Aires

University of Notre Dame Global Gateway – London, UK

Teleconferenced with Notre Dame Main Campus – Notre Dame, USA

This event will be live streamed—more information at kellogg.nd.edu

Alicia Castro

Ambassador of Argentina to the United Kingdom

Scott Mainwaring

Conley Professor of Political Science
Kellogg Institute Faculty Fellow
University of Notre Dame

Gabriela Ippolito-O'Donnell

Kellogg Institute Visiting Fellow
University of Notre Dame

Philippe Schmitter

Emeritus Professor of Political Science
European University Institute

Leigh Payne

Professor of Sociology of Latin America
Director, Latin American Centre
St. Antony's College, University of Oxford

Guillermo Makin

Senior Research Associate
Centre of Latin American Studies
University of Cambridge

Martín D'Alessandro

Professor of Political Science
Universidad de Buenos Aires

Paolo Carozza

Director, Kellogg Institute for International Studies

Warren von Eschenbach

Director, Notre Dame London Centre

A reception will follow in London.

University of Notre Dame London Centre, 1 Suffolk Street, London, SW1Y 4HG

RSVP for London attendance required: lonconf@nd.edu

EMBAJADA
ARGENTINA
EN LONDRES

Jefatura de
Gabinete de Ministros
Presidencia de la Nación

