

The University of Notre Dame London Global Gateway, Shakespeare Birthplace Trust, and The Shakespeare Institute present

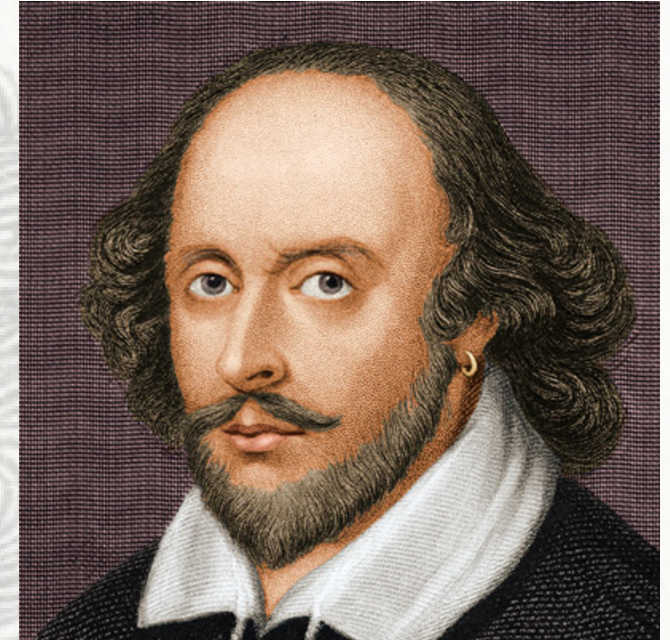

The Annual London Shakespeare Lecture in Honor of Stanley Wells, CBE

with Professor Emeritus Lois Potter
University of Delaware

Shakespeare, Performance and Contingency

Wednesday, March 2, 2016 at 6:00 p.m.

Fischer Hall, 1 Suffolk Street, London SW1Y 4HG

Professor Lois Potter's extensive list of publications includes Othello (in the University of Manchester's Shakespeare in Performance series), Which Shakespeare? and The Life of William Shakespeare, as part of Wiley-Blackwell's Critical Biography series. She has also reviewed countless plays, and edited a range of other Shakespeare-related publications. Professor Potter retired in 2008 as Ned B. Allen Professor of English.

RSVP by Friday 26 February 2016, at <https://goo.gl/uwiZd2>

Contact lonconf@nd.edu for more information.

Join us to help
celebrate 400 years of Shakespeare's legacy!

INTERNATIONAL
London Global Gateway

